POTENTATE MESSAGE—heinemanja@yahoo.com

Hello All,

One month left of the summer season for Ben Hur.

We had a parade in Stonewall with a good showing. The families in the area showed up in force and showed great support for the Shriners, always a good parade there. As soon as the parade was over, we had to boogie to Ben Hur for the Victory party. It was a good, but busy day. We recognized all the units that participated in the competition at TSA. These units were Charioteers, Directors Staff, Legion of Honor, Motley Brue', Provost Guard, Shotgun and Trailblazers. A big shoutout goes to these units for their achievements and the hard work they put into it.

The Divan made it to Reno for the Imperial Session. With the way the airlines have been operating these days, everyone from Ben Hur made it without a hitch. There was a good turnout for the conference. We were there from Saturday, June 29 thru July 4. The Opening Ceremony was nice with a look through what had gone on for 2023/24.

The presentation and reports about what Shriners Children's are doing was very moving. They are doing research in Genomics and learning tons of information about the diseases and hopefully they can put this knowledge to work soon to heal our Children. It is inspiring! At the business meetings, most of the voting was for cleaning up the language in the bylaws and giving some countries dispensation to open new temples. The parade was a good one. We did not participate, but our neighbors from San Antonio did.

For Nobility Entertainment this Session, the hotels brought in The Commodores. They put on about 75 minutes of performance and we all had a ball watching them. There are 3 original members, only 2 were at this performance, but 2 newer members are second generation, they are good! Really enjoyed it. Even our own Imperial Sir Jim Smith and his Lady, Alice, were up dancing in the crowd.

POTENTATE MESSAGE (CON'T)—heinemanja@yahoo.com

The rest of July is attending some of the meetings put on by the LOS and Nile Ladies. We were fortunate to make the celebration of the LOS 50-year anniversary. These ladies work hard to make the Ben Hera Court a success and put a lot of money in the Shriners Children's coffers so they can continue to treat our children. We had several Past Potentates in attendance, Eddie Daffern and Lady Shari, Loren Orme and Lady Betty, Gene Freudenberg and Lady LaDell, Imp. Sir Jim Smith and Lady Alice, Earl Robertson and Lady Lisa, and Lady Karen Sanders. AR Charles Maddox and I were also there. The next event is the visit from the Supreme Queen of the Daughters of the Nile. Your Divan will be there to represent Ben Hur at this celebration.

There is a Ladies Luncheon put on by First Lady Janet Heineman. This is going to be fun. There will be several Past Potentates that will be serving the Ladies, should be fun and funny.

We had to move Movie Night to August 17. The movie will be Oppenheimer. We will have popcorn and beverages. We will open at 3pm, see you there.

September is fast approaching, and we will be back to work at the Temple, see you there.

Signing off for now,
Ben Hur Proud!

Nobles and Ladies,

The Ben Hur Shrine Transportation Unit is looking for a few active Nobles and Ladies to help transport patients to our Galveston Hospital.

It has been slow in the last few years but now we are seeing more patients and the demand for transportation has increased. As a result, we have already had 4 runs to Galveston since January.

New drivers will need a good driving record and make two runs with an existing driver to be qualified. This would be a great opportunity for a husband and wife team. Trips are always during the week and in some cases can be accomplished in the same day. Pam and I have done it.

Depending on the time and type of appointment you may have to stay overnight. Shriners Hospital care of hotel housing . Food and fuel expenses are reimbursed by our Ben Hur.

Please contact me if you are interested or if you have any further questions.

It's pretty cool to be a part of Love to the Rescue. Rock on Shriners !

HIGH PRIEST & PROPHET - fred.maynard@att.net

Nobles & Ladies,

This summer has been busy and full of adventure. Lady Traci and I participated in the Stonewall Peach Jamboree parade followed by the TSA victory party. Congratulations to the units that participated in the TSA competitions and brought home trophies. Thank you to our Oriental Guide Ricky Hayes and Lady Angie for organizing and executing a wonderful event. Good job OG Team!

There are two parades coming up this month, I hope you and your lady will participate. The Blanco Country parade in Johnson City on August 17th, and the Gillespie Country parade in Fredericksburg on August 23rd. We would love to have as many nobles and ladies as possible come out and have fun. We are often asked about our clowns and little cars. You are missed. These parades are opportunities to give back to the communities that support the hospitals. Won't you do it for the kids?

Lady Traci and I were blessed to attend the Shriners & Imperial session in Reno. While the Ladies visited the hospital in California. I participated in the opening ceremony with the International Association Legions of Honor color guard. I also attended the marketing and membership session; there is some good information that I hope we can use here at Ben Hur. I attended most of the Imperial business sessions and got a better understanding of the business of both our fraternity and the hospitals.

I found out this past week that over the past ten years that our membership is shrinking by an average of 35 members per year. This is a really frightening statistic. We need to begin proactively working to turn this around. If you love the Shrine don't be afraid to share it, start talking to your lodge brothers and friends. We can change this trend, but it will take everyone working together.

We continue our work on the upcoming hospital fundraiser. We hosted a casting call in June; since then, the cast has been learning their parts and polishing the script. We ask you to please help make this a great fundraiser for Shriners Children's Hospitals. To purchase tickets, visit www.benhurshrine.org/mystery or call the office. We continue to sell stars on the Wall of Fame at www.benhurshrine.org/star. Please see ads for additional information.

HISTORY

BEN HUR SHRINERS INITIATION 1900

The average Shriner is a man, who like Jack of schoolboy days, likes to take a day off just for the pleasure of it. Whenever he sees an opportunity of taking this day off upon the occasion of the pilgrimage of some unfortunate across the hot sands of the desert, then indeed does he enjoy himself.

Yesterday and last night the members of Ben Hur Temple and a number of visiting Shriners from Dallas and Galveston had such an opportunity of enjoying themselves upon the occasion of the initiation of quite a number of persons into the mysteries of the Temple.

As a preliminary of the coming event there was a large street parade the local and visiting Shriners along with the "victims" of the evening's entertainment. The Shriners were all attired in their finest evening wear topped with the traditional red hats. The "victims" of the occasion in anticipation of the coming trials and tribulations were dressed in sack cloth and vainly tried to look "comfortable" while they rode diminutive and very sad looking donkeys in the wake of the long line of marching Shriners. Heading the list was H. Clausen of this city who was evidently the first victim on the list since there was a large rope secured around his body while the other end was held by the Captain of the Guard, C. M. Bartolomew.

The lengthy parade wound through the downtown area, around the Capitol and back down the Avenue to the Masonic Temple (Located then at W 7th & Colorado). This concluded this phase of the program and the victims for the evening's entertainment were turned over to attendants to be groomed and the Shriners retired to their respective hotels to be in readiness for an early convening for the entertainment of the evening.

The fun in this line was opened at 8:00PM in the Masonic Building with only the chosen permitted to enter but to those who stood on the neighboring roof tops the suffering of the pilgrims in their wanderings across the hot sands was most heartrending. The sounds drifting out of the ceremony at intervals gave a good idea of what was going on within.

Upon conclusion of the initiation ceremonies all those in attendance repaired to the Driskill Hotel for an elegant banquet. The banquet was to commence at 11:00PM but due to the length of the initiation ceremony, it was a few minutes past midnight before all the nobles were seated. For the next two hours everyone enjoyed magnificent menu arranged by the Driskill Manger.

There were a number of toasts by such dignitaries as Lt. Governor Browning, Attorney General Tom Smith, Noble George Green of Dallas, State Representative Jasper Collins and Noble J E Farnsworth of Dallas. Goodbyes were said after 2:00AM to the sounds of the Besserer's Orchestra.

LEGION OF HONOR

Your Ben Hur LoH is taking a rest this month until we meet again the first Wednesday of September at 1830 hrs. Our first meeting will have a guest speaker from the Texas Veteran's Commission to describe their programs for our Texas Vets. Everyone is welcome to attend.

We're continuing our series of Ben Hur Veteran spotlights, so...

Do you know these Veterans?

Noble Sam Stimson

I began my military duty in June, 1960. I took the oath in Charlotte, N.C. We had to wait for transportation so a group of us went to a small restaurant across the street. We were given vouchers for the meal and we thought we would get a nice Carolina BBQ plate. We all sat down, the waitress came over and we pulled out our vouchers. Before we could order, she turned and yelled to the kitchen, "5 Recruit Meals"! That pretty much set the tone for the next 5 weeks.

I managed to get through USAF Basic Training, which is pretty similar to a vacation in a motel 6, and then off to Aerial Photography School at Lowry AFB in Denver. This was 33 weeks of electronics and photography training and drinking 3.2 beer. On graduation day we all gathered in the hall and looked at the orders board. I was headed to France!

A long story short, I had planned to stay for 4 years, get out, go to college, graduate, and work with my Father. Funny how the best laid plans change. I loved my job and excitement. So I reenlisted.

Being involved with Tactical Reconnaissance means there are limited assignments, most of which are not in the United States. I found myself visiting France, England, South Carolina, Texas, Okinawa, Thailand, Japan, and Vietnam (a few times). I got to where I could actually fall asleep on a C-130. As soon as the engines started I would doze off not wake up until we landed.

I met my wife Jeannette in Upper Heyford, England at a dance in the NCO Club. We were reassigned to Bergstrom, Austin in 1969. During that assignment I used the GI Bill to get my BA from Southwest Texas State.

Back and forth from Texas to England and back to Texas again and I retired an E8 on June 30, 1980. 20 years and 15 days that I would do all over again.

Noble Jim Hollis, U. S. Navy.
